Brenda Peris, Officer and Manager of the Saratoga National Bank and Trust Company office in Corinth, has been appointed to the board of the Corinth Industrial Development Agency.

Ms. Peris' career with Saratoga National Bank has spanned more than sixteen years and has included many positions in the bank's retail banking division. She is a former winner of the company's Employee of the Year Award and is a member of the bank's High Performance Club.

In addition to her new role with the Industrial Development Agency, Ms. Peris is active in her community in other ways including as a member of the Corinth Rotary Club and participating in volunteer roles in the school district and a number of not for profit organizations.
